

Do you know how your parents first met; how about your great-grandparents? Many of us do not know our family stories. Who will write your story for future generations, if not you? These questions were asked of Genealogy club members at our last meeting on November 2nd by speaker, Jan Larkey, in her presentation "How to Write a Family Story". Jan is a resident of Saddlebrooke Ranch and a published writer. Jan lead the Genealogy Club members in a writing exercise and shared some of her own story writing from her memoir titled Mom, Mania, and Me published under the pen name Diane Dweller. Club members left feeling inspired and motivated to pass on their own written legacy for family and future generations.

The Saddlebrooke Genealogy Club meets on the first Thursday of every month at 1:00 PM in the Coyote Room of the Saddlebrooke HOA1 Clubhouse. At our next meeting on Thursday, December 9th Michelle Goodrum will speak on "Digging for Ancestors at the BLM Website" Guests are always welcome

Club Member, Dave Tiefenbach, will be teaching a RootsMagic genealogy software class starting on January 4th from 11:00 AM to 12:30. The class will be every Thursday for 5 weeks. RootsMagic is a genealogy program that assists family historians in tracking, organizing, printing, and sharing family history. Attendees must be a member of the SaddleBrooke Computer Club. To see a complete description of the class and to register, go to the SaddleBrooke Computer Club website at <http://www.saddlebrookecc.org/> and click on Classes.
