

Our speaker for the May meeting is Duane Roen who will present: “Getting Started with Family History Writing: Tips for Beginners”.

Duane is a professor of writing; he has developed a degree track in writing family history; he has also been researching family history for four decades.

Duane is a member of the Family History Society of Arizona and has conducted many workshops for the FHSA. He has also spoken to other community groups and conducted such workshops for faculty and staff at Arizona State University.

Duane has published nine books and more than 250 chapters, articles, and papers. Most of his publication focus on teaching writing. Some focus on teaching students to write family history.

Duane Roen is currently:
Vice Provost, Polytechnic campus
Dean, College of Letters and Sciences
Dean, University College
Arizona State University
480-727-6513
duane.roen@asu.edu

Learn more about Duane at <https://webapp4.asu.edu/directory/person/29914>