WORKSHOP ON U.S. CENSUS by Gloria Quigg

Gloria Quigg will hold a workshop on information you can find in the U.S. Census. This will be an informal talk on the 1930, 1920, 1910, and 1900 Census records.

This is open to all members; non-members are also welcome. The cost is free for members and $5.00 for non-members, to cover the cost of printing. Please contact Gloria at g14maz@wbhsi.net or 818-2115 if you plan to attend.

CENSUS WEBSITES

The website at <http://www.censusfinder.com/> has 33,813 links to free census records online for United States, United Kingdom and Canada. Also, volunteers at <http://automatedgenealogy.com/index.html> have not only transcribed census records but have spent many hours painstakingly linking to other sites.

MARCH WORKSHOP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Gloria is looking for volunteers to help with the workshop which will be held on Tuesday March 15th. If you are willing to help with things such as publicity, registration, or making photocopies, please contact Gloria Quigg g14maz@wbhsi.net or 818-2115.

ADVANCED GENEALOGY SEARCH ENGINE

A new search engine, designed especially for genealogists, can be found at http://www.genealogyintime.com/GenealogyResources/Tools/advanced_genealogy_search_engine.html. I have given this search engine a test drive and it does do a better job than Google of finding free websites of particular interest to genealogists. Many of the hits you will find with this search engine are obituaries.
