

Do you know where your ancestors are?

SaddleBrooke Genealogy Club
to sponsor an All-Day Genealogy Seminar and Fair
Saturday, February 2, 2008

Barbara Nuehring, nationally known seminar presenter, will give you valuable information on: Timelines -- Understanding your Ancestors' World; Using Boxes to Think Outside the Box; Researching Your German Ancestors Without Going to Europe; and Exploiting Maps to Track Down Your Ancestors.

Barbara's interest in genealogy started when she was working in Germany and visited an ancestor's village. Barbara has a BS in Business from the University of Maryland, and after a successful career as a comptroller within the US Department of the Army, she has spent her time researching her family history and taking active roles in several organizations.
